DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-5, 7-12, 14-19 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rich et al. (5758271) in view of Younis et al. (6134430).

Claims 1, 8 and 15. Rich discloses an apparatus and a method for improving the dynamic range of a receiver, and a system for receiving and transmitting signals comprising:

a processor for determining an error rate of a received signal (the amount for gain adjustment (col. 6 lines 27)).

Rich discloses a gain controller for adjusting the gain of the receiver in response to the measured error rate of the demodulated received signal. Rich does not disclose the receiver having a low noise amplifier with an adjustable input intercept point. However, Younis teaches a low noise amplifier with an adjustable input intercept point (col. 12 lines 1-12). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Rich by Younis, by adding a low noise amplifier with an adjustable input intercept point in order to minimize degradation in the performance of a receiver.

Claims 2, 9 and 16. Rich as modified by Younis discloses the apparatus wherein the input intercept point is adjusted based also on a transmit power level (Fig. 1 item 112 and 108).

Claims 3-5, 10-12 and 17-19. Rich as modified by Younis discloses the limitations in claims 3-5, 10-12, and 17-19) (col. 12 line 62 to col. 13 line 10 in Younis).

Claims 7, 14 and 21. Rich as modified by Younis does not specifically mention the apparatus of claim 1, wherein a gain of the low noise amplifier is adjusted based on a received signal strength. However, this is inherent in the system.

Claims 6, 13 and 20. Rich as modified by Younis discloses the apparatus, wherein the computed error rate is a frame error rate (col. 12 line 62 to col. 13 line 2).

Claims 22-24. Rich as modified by Younis discloses the apparatus, wherein the input intercept point is adjusted independently of a change in a gain of the low noise amplifier (col. 12 lines 1-4).

Response to Request for reconsideration

4. The amendment filed on 7-16-01 has been fully considered but is found to be ineffective to overcome the cited references.
